

Case Study#8: Big Day Umbrella

Rain On Your Wedding Day

- The wedding party of a Boston engaged couple wanted to come up with a fun, creative idea to give as a present for their upcoming nuptials.
- When they heard about "The Big Day Umbrella" policy through HCCS, they knew it would be the perfect gift! They purchased the policy that stated that "If it rained 1/2 inch (0.50) or more on the couples wedding date of July 18th, between the hours of 6:00 PM and 12:00 AM at Boston Logan Airport, then the policy would payout $25,000".
- Sure enough, on July 18th a heavy rain came through and rained more than 1/2 inch during the specified hours. Although the lucky couple didn't have bright sunny skies on their wedding day, they were certainly ok with it since they walked away with a $25,000 wedding gift!
